DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 recites the limitation "the organism" in lines 24 and 26-28. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 4 recites the limitation "the organism" in line 3. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 5 recites the limitation "the organism" in line 2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 6 recites the limitation "the organism" in line 2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Regarding claim 2, the phrase "the means to apply to the said input part" in an attempt to use a "means" clause to recite a claim element as a means for performing a specified function. However, since no function is specified by the word(s) preceding "means," it is impossible to determine the equivalents of the element, as required by 35 U.S.C. 112, sixth paragraph. See Ex parte Klumb, 159 USPQ 694 (Bd. App. 1967).

The applicant needs to change the wording to read like it does in claim 3.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) The invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Justin et al USPN 5,505,733.

Justin discloses the same invention being a implantable mechanical device with adjustable geometry comprising an input part 55, output part (component between elements 60 and 40 shown in figure 1b), reference part 706, transported part 30 with helicoidal link 40, and means for attaching to bone or soft tissue being holes and screws shown throughout. In regards to required first and second friction springs Justin discloses clutches, but says they can be replaced with springs in [4:29-32].
